

Woodstock Chimes Hopes Sales Will Ring and Sparkle with New Woodstock Chime Fantasy Series

Delicate Chiming Combines with Sparkling Crystals and Motifs to Enchant and Delight

SHOKAN, N.Y., January 5, 2017 – During the summer of 2016, Woodstock Chimes®, a leading manufacturer of musically tuned windchimes, garden décor and high-quality gifts, introduced the Woodstock Tree of Life Chime™, which combined the charming brass ornaments found on its popular Woodstock Rainbow Makers™ - Crystal Fantasy™ with the chimes for which the company is internationally renowned. The chime proved to be so popular at the summer markets that the company expanded on the idea and developed a Woodstock Chime Fantasy™ series. The new series will debut along with over 30 other new product introductions at the 2017 winter markets, including Atlanta, Dallas and Las Vegas.

Delicate chiming combines with sparkling crystals and motifs from nature and mythology to enchant and delight with the new Woodstock Chime Fantasy items. They make great and affordable gifts for anyone to use almost anywhere. Each of the five styles measures ten inches in overall length and retails for $10. They are sold in increments of six. All come ready to give in a four-color gift box and include four silver rods, decorative crystals and a filigree-style, nickel-plated brass ornament:
