

Woodstock Chimes Launches New Farm-Themed Crystal Fantasy Suncatchers in Woodstock Rainbow Makers™ Collection

SHOKAN, N.Y., December 4, 2018 –Woodstock Chimes, the leading manufacturer of musically tuned windchimes and home and garden decor, has once again expanded its popular Woodstock Rainbow Makers™ collection of colorful crystal suncatchers handmade in the UK, most of which feature genuine Austrian crystals. Crystal Fantasy™ suncatchers, with their whimsical nickel-plated brass ornaments, are perennial best sellers, and there's every indication that this new group featuring mostly farm-themed ornaments will charm buyers and customers alike. They are part of over 30 new products the company is launching at the upcoming 2019 winter gift shows in Atlanta, Dallas and Las Vegas.

“We have seen growth in rural markets and designed the decorative, fun accents of our new Crystal Fantasy offerings primarily with that audience in mind,” said Garry Kvistad, founder and owner of Woodstock Chimes and a GRAMMY® Award-winning musician. “While they are sure to appeal to customers in rural areas, we think these designs will prove irresistible to shoppers everywhere. We like to say that Woodstock Rainbow Makers do for light what Woodstock Chimes do for sound, sending out beautiful rainbows as the sun shines through them. We encourage retailers to display the crystals near a light source. Customers will see the breathtaking effect and retailers will see sparkling sales. They also make stunning Christmas tree ornaments and we urge retailers to merchandise them as such during the holiday shopping season.”

Like all Crystal Fantasies, the new designs measure 4.5 inches in length and 10 inches in overall length, including the silver finish plated brass chain. All come ready to give in an organza gift bag and retail for $20. The new styles include:
