

Woodstock Fleur de Lis Chime™ Launches in Time for Bastille Day
Tuned to notes from “La Marseillaise,” the National Anthem of France

SHOKAN, N.Y., May 1, 2018 – Just in time for Bastille Day, the July 14th French national holiday celebrating the Storming of the Bastille, Woodstock Chimes, the leading manufacturer of musically tuned windchimes, has launched the Woodstock Fleur de Lis Chime (ADFL), tuned to the opening notes of “La Marseillaise,” the national anthem of France. Bastille Day celebrations are similar to Independence Day celebrations in the United States, with fireworks and parades, and pay tribute to the ideals of freedom and democracy. The new chime can be seen at the upcoming summer gift markets, including Dallas, Atlanta and Las Vegas.

“The majestic, celebratory opening notes of France’s national anthem make for a windchime tuning that’s as iconic as Paris and the Eiffel Tower,” said Garry Kvistad, founder and owner of Woodstock Chimes and a GRAMMY® Award-winning musician. “The Woodstock Fleur de Lis Chime continues our recent expansion of chimes with a French theme, including the Woodstock Clair de Lune Chime™, the Woodstock French Romance Chime™ and the Chimes of Provence™. These international offerings are a beautiful and musical way for customers to enjoy global culture in their own back yard.”

A nickel-plated fleur de lis accent, a symbol of three lily petals often used by French monarchs, adorns the windcatcher of the Woodstock Fleur de Lis Chime. In the United States, the fleur de lis is a symbol of the French-settled city of New Orleans, including the Saints football team. Customers can easily remove the windcatcher and take it to their local personalization shop to have it engraved or silk-screened. Measuring 31 inches in overall length, the chime features six silver aluminum tubes and bubinga finish ash wood. Available for immediate shipping, it comes ready to give in a gift box and retails for $56.
