

Woodstock Chimes Expands Encore® Collection with New Quartet of Chimes
Launches Chimes of Orion™ and Chimes of Titan™; Adds Evergreen Color to Two Existing Styles

SHOKAN, N.Y., July 24, 2018 – Woodstock Chimes, the leading manufacturer of musically tuned windchimes, is expanding its popular Encore Collection. Two new sizes, Chimes of Orion™ and Chimes of Titan™, are launching in silver, and after a successful early 2017 launch, the evergreen color will become available in the Chimes of Polaris and Chimes of the Eclipse sizes. The new chimes can be seen at the upcoming summer gift markets, including Dallas, Atlanta and Las Vegas.

“Chimes of Orion and Chimes of the Eclipse feature octave doubling, a musical phenomenon that produces unusually rich overtones,” said Garry Kvistad, founder and owner of Woodstock Chimes and a GRAMMY® Award-winning musician. “Our celestial-themed Encore Collection Chimes share an enchanting tuning that sounds out of this world. Since 2001, our value priced Encore Collection has been a customer favorite and now comes in 11 sizes and several colors. The similarities in tuning, design and materials make these chimes economical to produce, offering the high value of Woodstock Chimes at a lower cost. Many Woodstock Chimes fans are Encore collectors, and proudly display full sets of Encore Chimes in their homes and gardens.”

Named for Saturn’s largest moon, Chimes of Titan (DCS50) is tuned to the Encore scale. It measures 50 inches in overall length with bubinga finish wood and four silver tubes. MSRP: $55.

Named for the constellation on the celestial equator visible throughout the world, Chimes of Orion (DCS30) is tuned to a pentatonic scale, octave doubled. It measures 30 inches in overall length with bubinga finish wood and ten silver tubes. MSRP: $45.

Inspired by the total eclipse of the sun in 2017, Chimes of the Eclipse – Evergreen (DCE40) is tuned to a pentatonic scale, octave doubled. It measures 40 inches in overall length with bubinga finish wood and ten satin green tubes. MSRP: $75. Also offered in Bronze (DCB40) and Silver (DCS40).

Named for the North Star, Chimes of Polaris – Evergreen (DCE22) is tuned to a pentatonic scale. It measures 22 inches in overall length with bubinga finish wood and five satin green tubes. MSRP: $22. Also offered in Bronze (DCB22), Silver (DCS22) and Verdigris (DCV22).

Customers can easily remove the windcatcher of the new chimes and have it engraved or silk-screened at a local personalization shop. All Encore Collection Chimes come ready to give in a four-color gift box.
